READING: (50% of test grade)

Purchase and read the novel, Vida o muerte en el Cusco. It is available on Amazon. A used copy will work fine. It should look like the image below. I will link a set of Quizlet flashcards to help you review your comprehension. Have the book read and be ready for a quiz on it the first week we return.

Supplemental Reading

Purchase The Complete Idiot's Guide to Latino History and Culture by D. H. Figueredo. This book will be a great resource for helping you fill in gaps in your cultural and historical knowledge. You can read it over the summer or wait until school starts. I will tell you which chapters to review in correlation with our AP units. You should be able to find this book in used & inexpensive.

Extra Credit: (Optional, Extra Credit Quiz Grade)

Journal Directions: Buy a notebook to use as a summer Spanish journal. You must try 3 of the 6 options listed below and write a one paragraph (minimum of 5 sentences) journal entry in English or Spanish reflecting on your experience.

Title each journal following the model below:

Journal Entry # : Option # - "A specific description of what you did"

Ex: Journal Entry #1: Option 3 – "Watching an episode of the novela, "La Malquerida"

Watch

1. Watch a Spanish TV channel. Try Univisión or Telemundo. I recommend news programs such as Primer Impacto, or Noticiero. You will see and hear speakers from all of the Spanish-speaking countries. Tu Desayuno Alegre, is a morning talk show with music videos. There are soap operas, Telenovelas, if that interests you. Additionally, there are many different game shows. You will need frequent contact over the summer with Spanish language and cultures.

2. Watch videos and DVDs in Spanish. While watching your favorite DVD this summer, select to hear or watch your DVD in the Spanish language. Spanish audio WITH Spanish subtitles works great. Watch music or other videos on youtube.com. The free telenovela "Destinos" from PBS is great and very addicting (<http://learner.org/series/destinos/watch>).

Listen

3. Videos and DVDs are excellent resources, too, for listening to Spanish. While watching your favorite DVD this summer, select to hear or watch your DVD in the Spanish language. Spanish audio WITH Spanish subtitles works great. It is especially helpful to watch a movie you know well in English. Disney movies work great for this, and most have a Spanish audio/subtitle feature on the DVD. Watch the program and jot down some words or things you don't understand or want to learn then. You probably will not understand everything, but over time your understanding will increase. Another option is to record a show, then pick a 3-6 minute segment and keep rewinding it, working with it until you get most of what is going on. You might also like working with music videos, songs, or commercials when you do this at first.

3. Seek out opportunities to listen to "live" Spanish. There are community cultural events and local churches that have activities and services in Spanish and local service organizations that provide services to the Spanish-speaking community. You can help others while helping yourself. Speak Spanish with family, friends, and co-workers. You may be surprised at how many people in this area speak Spanish.

4. Listen to Spanish music. Create a Pandora or Spotify station around an artist you know like Enrique Iglesias, Juanes, or Shakira.

5. Try a podcast in Spanish. Most are free. Two great places to get started are notesinspanish.com and spanishpod101.com. They are available on iTunes and online.
