Student Travel Pledge
First Academy

1. I understand that while I am traveling on this trip, I am representing my home, school, and Jesus. My conduct, words and attitude will always reflect that.

2. I understand that no students may consume or purchase alcohol, tobacco products or illegal drugs for the duration of the trip.

3. I understand that profanity may not be used at any time on this trip.

4. I understand that boys and girls are not allowed in the rooms of members of the opposite sex without appropriate adult supervision.

5. I understand that I must stay with my chaperone at all times.

6. I understand that modest casual dress (as required on a dress-down day) is expected.

7. I understand that I am expected to participate in all group activities.

8. I understand that if I violate our school's standards, I may be sent home at my own expense. Disciplinary actions may include, but are not limited to, suspension, expulsion, and/or withdrawal of privileges, including participation in graduation ceremonies.

9. I understand that chaperones are taking time out of their busy lives to help make this trip possible. I will give them the respect and obedience they deserve.
