HS Summer Reading 2022-23

English I, II, and I, II Honors: Mrs. Martin (cmartin@faleesburg.com)
English III, III Honors, and Senior English: Mrs. Iseminger (hiseminger@faleesburg.com)

In an effort to encourage reading just for fun, and to set students up for success, we are excited to introduce Summer Reading as an extra credit assignment for all 2021-22 high school students. This summer, we are encouraging our students to pick some of their favorite books and read JUST for fun!

We cannot stress the importance of reading enough and don't want our students to get behind. We also want them to enjoy reading and have worked to devise a strategy which incentivizes summer reading. Summer reading is a research-based practice which prevents students from losing knowledge gained in the previous school year.

Dr. Richard L. Allington states, "Previous research has shown that children who do not read in the summer lose two to three months of reading development a year, while students who do read gain a month of reading proficiency. The result is a three- to four-month gap every year, which will snowball into a 1 ½--year gap between the time children complete kindergarten and the time they finish fifth grade."

How it works:

Each class will be required to read the number of pages specified below during the summer. Parents will sign the bottom portion of this letter and students will turn it in on the first day of school. Students will receive:

- 50-point extra credit score averaged in for the 1st 9 weeks
- 1 dress down day pass
- 1 homework pass

There is no penalty for not completing this assignment.

Class reading pages are as follows:

Class	Page Count	Class	Page Count
English I and English II	300 pages	English I and English II Honors	500 pages
English III and English IV	400 pages	English III and English IV Honors	600 pages

(Please note: All AP Language and AP Literature students have a separate assignment to complete in order to receive extra incentives.)

In order to receive extra credit, this must be signed by all parties and turned in by the Friday of the first week of school, without exception unless prior consent has been given by Mrs. Iseminger or Mrs. Martin.
